

ELYSEE
MIAMI

An aerial night photograph of the Miami skyline, focusing on the East Edgewater area. The Elysee Miami tower, a tall, slender skyscraper with a distinctive three-tiered design, is the central focus, illuminated with warm lights. It stands out among other high-rise buildings. The foreground shows the dark water of Biscayne Bay, reflecting the city lights. The background is filled with the dense urban landscape of Miami, with numerous other skyscrapers and city lights visible under a twilight sky.

TRUE WATERFRONT IS MORE THAN JUST A VIEW

THE FIRST AND ONLY LUXURY BOUTIQUE TOWER IN EAST EDGEWATER

Rising directly from the shores of Biscayne Bay in the wonderful emerging neighborhood of East Edgewater, Elysee Miami sets a new standard for refined luxury with its masterful confluence of design, luxury and waterfront location. At 57 stories, Elysee is tall and impressive, but with only 100 residences -- no more than two per floor -- Elysee maintains the intimacy and sophistication of living in a boutique-style building. Each residence has the unique distinction of having an unobstructed, breathtaking view of Biscayne Bay.

World-renowned architect Bernardo Fort-Brescia, of Arquitectonica, has designed Elysee to be instantly recognizable yet discreet. This is not an ordinary residential tower. From its three-tiered telescoping shape and alluringly light tones to the fine materials used to construct it, Elysee is an exquisite tribute to the power of design to lift the soul. Inside, France's top interior designer, Jean-Louis Deniot, introduces his rich signature style. At once timeless, elegant and entirely fresh, Deniot's vision brings a new level of fine living to Miami.

This is living the way is supposed to be, realizing what life really has to offer -- and getting it. A rare place, not so easy to access and very special once you're in.

For the lucky few, the experience of living at Elysee Miami starts at the waterfront and goes on to provide the world's finest lifestyle.

These materials do not reflect the final, as-built plans for the unit, or any room located therein, and may not be relied upon. All improvements, designs, and construction are subject to first obtaining the appropriate federal, state, and local permits and approvals for same. No guarantees or representations whatsoever are made that any plans, features, designs, or other items depicted or described herein will be provided or, if provided, will be of the same type, size, location or nature as depicted or described herein. The developer expressly reserves the right to make modifications, revisions, and changes it deems desirable in its sole and absolute discretion. This offering is made only by the prospectus for the condominium and no statement or information should be relied upon if not made in the prospectus. All architectural plans are and shall remain the property of the architect or developer and no rights are conferred hereby.

Stated square footages and dimensions are measured to the exterior boundaries of the exterior walls and the centerline of interior dividing walls and in fact vary from the dimensions that would be determined by using the description and definition of the "Unit" set forth in the Declaration (which generally only includes the interior airspace between the perimeter walls and excludes all interior structural components and other common elements). This method is generally used in sales materials and is provided to allow a prospective buyer to compare the Units with units in other condominium projects that utilize the same method. For your reference, the area of the Unit, determined in accordance with these defined unit boundaries, is set forth above and is labeled as "A/C" (terraces, although included in the total square footage, are not part of the Unit). Measurements of rooms set forth on this floor plan are generally taken at the farthest points of each given room (as if the room were a perfect rectangle), without regard for any cutouts or variations. Accordingly, the area of the actual room will typically be smaller than the product obtained by multiplying the stated length and width. All dimensions are estimates which will vary with actual construction, and all floor plans, specifications, and other development plans are proposed and conceptual only, which are subject to change and will not necessarily accurately reflect the final plans and specifications for the development.
