AURORA'S UNIQUE ARCHITECTURAL SIGNATURE—

INSPIRED BY A NATURAL PHENOMENON

Designed by world-renowned architect Luis Revuelta, Aurora introduces a fresh expression of artistry to the Sunny Isles skyline. Rising 17 stories over Collins Avenue, Aurora's curvilinear facade creates a fluid effect recalling the dramatic motion of the aurora borealis. As a collection of Sunny Isles' most original new tower residences, Aurora encourages living as an art form in a setting of sophistication and prestige.

ESCAPE FROM THE ORDINARY

From the moment of arrival, the Aurora aesthetic announces a dramatic departure from predictability. Antrobus + Ramirez's extraordinary interior design vision is immediately evident in Aurora's entry and public spaces.

RESIDENCES

EUPHORIC

BY DESIGN

Aurora's residences are constructed to the highest standard of craftsmanship, utilizing carefully curated finishes and fixtures that enhance the seemingly effortless 2- and 3-bedroom layouts. Larger, spectacular amenity-deck lanai homes and penthouses are also available in limited quantities.

OPEN-CONCEPT ELEGANCE

Floor-to-ceiling windows bathe interior spaces in daylight, and afford access to gracefully curved private terraces, while the feeling of spaciousness is further accented by airy 10' ceilings. Luxurious lifestyle accouterments include private elevator entries and thoughtfully devised room layouts that maximize flow and provide access to spectacular views. This is open-concept living at its finest.

AN ALLURE OF CONTEMPORARY CREATIVITY

The interior design genius of Antrobus + Ramirez has delivered a tour de force of elegant concepts and carefully considered detailing to each Aurora residence, paired with attention to seamless utility and a selection of Wolf®, Sub-Zero® and Miele® appliances.
